Notes to Financial Statements
For the year ended July 31, 2025

1. Nature of Operations

The Prairie Oat Growers Association Inc. (POGA) was incorporated on April 20, 1998 under the Non-Profit Corporations Act of Saskatchewan. The organization's purpose is to develop and support partnerships in the agricultural industry that will enhance the profitability of oats for prairie producers and increase its value to the customer. The organization is not subject to income tax.

POGA also works to co-ordinate the efforts of the Saskatchewan Oat Development Commission (operating as SaskOats), the Manitoba Oat Growers Association and the Alberta Oat Growers Commission. Further information regarding the relationship between POGA and these provincial organizations is detailed in note 8.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

These financial statements are the responsibility of management and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNFPO) using the accounting policies as summarized below:

(a) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents represents cash on hand and cash held in banks.

(b) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization.

The assets are amortized until the value has diminished using the following methods and rates:

	Method of Amortization	Rate of Amortization
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	straight-line	5 years
Computer equipment	straight-line	3 years

In the year of acquisition, capital assets are amortized starting in the month of acquisition.

In the year of disposition, capital assets are amortized until the month of disposition.

(c) Revenue

Funding contributions from the Saskatchewan Oat Development Commission, the Alberta Oat Growers Commission and the Manitoba Oat Growers Association are recognized based on a cost-sharing agreement between the three parties. Related revenues are recognized in the year in which the expenses included in the cost-sharing agreement are incurred.

Grant revenues and other contributions are recognized following the deferral method of accounting. As such, restricted contributions subject to external stipulations, including grant revenues, are recognized as revenue in the same period in which the related expenditures are made, provided all grant qualifications have been met and collection is reasonably assured. Restricted contributions for which the related restrictions remain unfulfilled are accumulated as deferred contributions.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Royalty revenue is recognized as received unless it can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Conference and meeting registration revenues are recognized when the related conference is held and any conditions relating to the revenues have been fulfilled.

Investment income comprised of interest from cash and fixed income investments are recognized on an accrual basis. Interest on fixed income investments is recognized over the terms of these investments using the effective interest method. Other investment income is recognized when it is received.

(d) Project expenses

Project expenses are recognized when the expenditures are made or become payable.

(e) Financial instruments

Measurement of financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. Financial assets and liabilities originated or exchanged in related party transactions are initially measured at cost.

The organization subsequently measures all its financial assets and liabilities at cost or amortized cost, except for investments in equity instruments that are quoted in an active market, which are measured at fair value.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost using the straight line method include cash and accounts receivable (excluding those from related parties). Amounts receivable from related parties are measured at cost. Equity investments are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in excess of revenue over expenses in the period they are incurred.

All financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost, except amounts payable to related parties which are measured at cost.

Impairment

Financial assets measured at cost are tested for impairment when there are indicators of impairment. The amount of the write-down is recognized in excess of revenue over expenses. The previously recognized impairment loss may be reversed to the extent of the improvement, directly or by adjusting the allowance account, provided it is no greater than the amount that would have been reported at the date of the reversal had the impairment not been recognized previously. The amount of the reversal is recognized in excess of revenue over expenses.

(f) Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reported period. These estimates are reviewed periodically and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in the statement of operations in the period in which they became known.

Significant estimates have been made in the following financial statement areas:

- expected service lives of capital assets
- grant revenues are recognized when management determines that the criteria for earning the funding has been met; however, the final determination of the qualification of expenses for funding commitments is determined by the granting body

3. Risks Arising from Financial Instruments

The organization is not exposed to significant risks through its financial instruments, with the exception of currency risk.

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The organization enters into contracts with vendors located in the United States of America from time to time for provision of research or other services. In the current year, no significant revenues or expenses were originally incurred in US dollars. Commitments contracted in US dollars are described in note 9. The purpose of this project is to establish the Prairie Weed Monitoring Network, a network of federal researchers, provincial specialists, and academics guiding weed biovigilance for the prairie region. It will also work towards completing various surveys, such as the weed abundance survey, pre-harvest herbicide-resistant weed survey, and the post-harvest herbicide-resistant weed survey. POGA has committed to funding $7,500 of the total project budget of $1,779,052, with payments of $1,500 being due in each of fiscal years 2024 through 2028. Expenses in the current year total $3,000 ($4,500 to date).

Different Oat Varieties, PGRs, Seeding Rates and their Interaction on Lodging and Shattering

The purpose of this project is to address the interaction of PGRs, such as Moddus and Minipulator, with increased oat seeding rates and their effects on shattering. POGA has committed to funding $20,000 total between the execution of the contract in July 2024 and June 2027. Amounts paid and recognized as an expense in the current year total $7,448 ($14,476 to date).

In the current year, POGA also paid an additional $1,500 plus tax to have whole oat samples from this project tested for residue concentrations of chlormequat and trinexapac-ethyl.

Long-Term C and N20 Monitoring, and Climate-Smart Management of Organic Grain Production Systems

In the current year, POGA has agreed to participate in a collaborative research project with Organic Federation of Canada that will run from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2026. The purpose of this project is to expand knowledge of GHGs in organic production by measuring N20 emissions and soil carbon storage for wheat, oat, and flax grown in a variety of organic production scenarios. POGA has committed to funding $8,000 of the total project budget of $121,900, with payments of $4,000 being due in each of fiscal years 2025 and 2026. Expenses incurred in the current year total $4,000 ($4,000 to date).

Understanding, Mitigating, and Managing PPO Inhibitor (Group 14)-Resistant

In the current year, POGA has agreed to participate in a collaborative research project with Western Grain Research Foundation that will run from December 2023 to May 2029. The purpose of this project is to understand cross-resistance to PPO-inhibiting (group 14) herbicides in this kochia population, determine cross or multiple-resistance to other herbicide modes of action, elucidate the molecular mechanism of Group 14 resistance, and understand the impact and distribution of this biotype in western Canada. POGA has committed to funding $5,000 of the total project contribution agreement of $240,750. Expenses incurred in the current year total $2,283 ($2,283 to date).

Climate-Smart Trait Development in Oat Germplasm for Canada and the Prairie Oat Breeding Consortium

In July 2024, POGA entered into a collaborative research project with the Canadian Field Crop Research Alliance for the purposes of funding the Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada oat breeding program located in Brandon, Manitoba. This is a continuation of the project previously called Prairie Oat Breeding Consortium (POBC). POGA has specifically agreed to fund the climate-smart trait development in oat germplasm for Canada project. The purpose of this project is to produce new, better oat varieties with traits required by the entire oat value chain. This is a five-year commitment spanning April 2023 to March 2028, with POGA committing $44,611 a year for a total commitment of $223,057. Expenses incurred in the current year total $44,611 ($133,833 to date).

On Farm Fall Applied Granular Herbicide Products for the Control of Wild Oats and Kochia After Oats

In the current year, POGA has agreed to participate in a research project with the Northeast Agriculture Research Foundation. The purpose of this project is to research possibilities of controlling wild oats, particularly glyphosate resistant wild oats, within cultivated oats. POGA has committed to funding $3,916 total during the project term of September 20, 2024 and December 15, 2025. No expenses have been incurred to date.

Expansion, Validation, and Optimization of Rapid Genetic Tests for Herbicide Resistance

In the current year, POGA has agreed to participate in a collaborative research project with Western Grain Research Foundation that will run from April 2025 to November 2029. The purpose of this project is to develop more timely and efficient herbicide resistance tests. POGA has committed to funding $20,000 of the total project contribution agreement of $499,825. Expenses incurred in the current year total $4,790 ($4,790 to date).
